MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM:

[redacted]
Executive Secretary, Strategic Warning Review
Group

SUBJECT: Approved Minutes of the Strategic Warning Review
Group Meeting of 11 June 1976

1. The second meeting of the Strategic Warning Review Group (SWRG) was held in the Intelligence Community Staff Conference Room (6 E 0708), CIA Headquarters, at 1400 hours, 11 June 1976. The meeting was chaired by [redacted] Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community (D/DCI/IC). A list of attendees is attached.

OPENING REMARKS [redacted]

2. [redacted] opened the meeting by stating that the purpose of this session was to clear up some of the questions everyone had concerning strategic warning and the role of the SWS. Before discussing the agenda items, [redacted] summarized some of the actions taken as a result of the first SWRG meeting in November 1975. Then he asked [redacted] Director of the SWS, to bring the Group up to date on current, non-routine projects the SWS is undertaking and its plans for future analytical efforts.

3. [redacted] began his briefing by stating that he was quite satisfied with the present relationship between the NIOs and the SWS. Then he proceeded to discuss in detail two projects. The first was an interagency study issued by the SWS in February on unusual Soviet communications. This was a good example of the SWS being able to get the Community together on a short notice and prepare a special report for the DCI. [redacted] asked about the reaction of the Community to this and to the SWS in general. Both [redacted] expressed
